This Could Do It

Civil Defenst Administration has been trying to find a way ever since it was set up as an agency of the executive branch of the federal government in January 1951 to make Americans believe in the importance of preparedness for aeria lattack. It has had indifferent successraore indifferent in some areas than others.

Everywhere it has had the same handicap of seeming to be going through motions so distantly related to reality, if they were related at all, that only a minority of conscientious workers could be found to staff the CDA organization. It was the same problem that had plagued civil defense during World War II, when most Americans simply could not be convinced there was enough actual danger of aerial attack to justify taking civil defense seriously.

CDA has struggled along since 1951, waiting for something to happen to the lethargy that has blocked its attempts to stir up public interest in what it was authorized to do. The "something" may have happened when the government of the Soviet Union announced last week that priority would be given to "preparation of the entire population for up-to-date air raid and chemical warfare defense."

Since this policy represents a reversal of a previous policy of keeping Russian civil defense on a quiet, standby basis, with minmum attention being called to the possibility of aerial attack, it is deeply significant.

If the Kremlin has decided that the risk of not being prepared to handle civil defense problems is greater than the risk of letting the people of the U.S.S.R. know about the danger of retaliation, there should be no further trouble for Civil Defense in the United States as far as popular lethargy is concerned.

When Russia means business, the United States will have no room for doubt about what it needs to do.

No Room For Error

If you belong to the small minority which thinks the United States is not always as dumb in its foreign relations as its critics say at is, the handling of the ticklish issue of Quemoy is worth a second look.

By kicking back and forth between them the question of whether or not Quemoy would get U. S. aid in the event of attack by Red China, the State Department and Pentagon have rut the potential attackers in a strategic vise.

They do not know what the consequences of an attempted invasion would be. They do not know where the line finally will be drawn in the defense of Formosa, itself-whether the U.S. pledge to protect that is and covers only Formosa itse'f or also includes small islands lying between Formosa and the mainland.

The present buildup of Red Chinese forces on the mainland recalls the same invasion threat when it was made the first time, in July 1950. Then as now, Quemoy was bombarded from the mainland, Finally a fleet of Communist junks approached it but turned away without attempting a landing.

At that time, the United States never had hinted it would go into action with the Seventh Fleet if Quemoy were attacked, but the Reds couldn't be sure even then. Now, the Unted States has hinted that if its military experts were to decide Quemoy was essential to the defense of Formosa, the Seventh Fleet would defend it. But the only way to be sure is to attack first.

The Red Chinese must try to out-guess both the Pentagon and the State Department. Since that is a big order even for Americans, it isn't a happy prospect for the guessers in Pieping, who have no room for error. If war flares between them and the Chinese Nationalists, it won't be confined to Quemoy.

The Name Is Roosevelt

Tammany never learns and the Roosevelts never forget. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. is the latest beneficiary of a situation that could be described as the trade secret of the Roosevelt

By earning Tammany's opposition to his bid for New York's Democrate nomination for governor, the namesake of the late president of the United States has earned the anti-Tammany support that goes to its critics. This is the second time he has pulled the same trick. The first time was in 1949 when he defeated Tammany Hall and the candidates of two other parties in a special election for the House of Representatives. He launched his political career then by being against Tammany and now is in a favored position to continue it on the same basis.

His father used the same method. So did his distant relative. Theodore Roosevelt, although he was expected to be anti-Tammany because he was a member of the Republican party. But to prove that the secret of political success for the Roosevelts is the unorthodox approach, Theodore Roosevelt made his mark by being against the Republican organization as often as President Eisenhower went into a hospital last week for his annual check-up. He came through fine, but it may still be necessary to operate on his golf score. The doctors found Ike hasn't been sleeping too well, and, since counting sheep is of no help, they recommended counting divots. They also found he tires easily in going over his score hole by hole, except on the winning holes, an ailment natural to all

Under questioning by the physicians, Ike admitted he has that "all gone" feling, especially when the ball travels only 80 yards after three

What really interested the doctors was some confusion of mind and a difficulty concentrating. On the recent trout fishing trip Ike,, demanded that Herb take two strokes after a lost fish. . . And during a golf game a few days later he handed in a low score claiming "the big one got away."

"How's Ike's heart?" We asked the examining

"Ike has the heart of an ox. But to be president in times like these one ox heart is not enough," was the reply.

"What about his pulse?"

"It is regular, except when Russia commits some outrageous act while he is bending over a one-foot putt."

"Do you think he is slowing up?" "No. He just doesn't want to RUN again," the doctor said.

Ford may put stock on the public market. We hope to get some, but can't make up our mind whether we want ten shares of common, convertible or de luxe. We are also uncertain about what color we want the stock certificate . . But we desire the hard-top dividend.

A neighboring parent tells us that his little girl, who follows the baseball telecasts, just piped "Mummie, can I have some beer so I can keep thin?"

Sherm Billingsley was kept so long on a recent Polo Grounds telecast that he shut out the usual game prelims and almost bol uode keh ttnaegame prelims and almost blocked out the national anthem. . . For a minute we thought he was going to PITCH.

A census taker says there will be 58,000,000 autos on our roads by 1955. . . The guy hasn't been counting cars weekends in 1954.

Jack Kroll and J. B. Carey, top CIO officials, shocked plenty of people by their bitter attack on Ike. . . Said he "had no understanding of the problems of the average man and his tamily" and headed a "Cadillac and country-chub set with a cynical disregard for the needs of the people"!!! What cars do you drive, Messrs. Kroll and Carey? And ya mean you are never seen at country clubs anywhere?

Drop Red Caps To Take Title

Butler Eliminated; 'A' Race May End Tonight

Georgetown today ranks as the official 1954 champon of the Grls'

Softball League.

After easily annexing regular season laurels, Georgetown came back to take the playoffs by virtue of winning the third and final game of the championship series last night, 15-4, from the Red Caps.

In other action at Kelley Field Monday, Leetonia moved to within one game of the "A" crown by dropping the Old Timers 13-3; and Salem Tool defeated Butler Grange 9-2 to win the second-place Double-A eliminations and move into the finals against Demings.

Tonight, Leetonia, which could end matters in the "A" loop in this tilt, wil take on the Old Timers at 7:15 while, at 8:30, Tool and Demings are pitted.

Georgetown 15, Red Caps 4

Handicapped by the loss of ace hurler Gladys Satterthwaite, the losers were no match for the potent Georgetown attack.

Georgetown racked up 16 hits and recorded two big innings, a 6-run second and a five-tally third, to coast home with little trouble. Doris Schneider, giving but 6 hits, fanned 10 batters. Carol Odey slammed three hits to pace the attack, while Gloria Odey, Marilyn Hoopes, Martha Butch, Darlene

Wyss, and Doris Schneider added two apiece. Ruth May, Betty Mc-Kenna and Erla Burrier accounted for all of Red Cap's six safeties. Lady Amateur Leetonia 13, Old Timers 3

Series Ticket Procedure Set

Tribe Taking Orders; Deadline Friday at 12

The Cleveland Baseball-Co. today announced that it was accepting mail orders for World Series tickets. In view of the fact that it takes at least 10 to 14 days to handle distribution of tickets, the club indicated it was now accepting orders even though the Indians have not yet cinched the American League

Box seats will cost $10 and reserved seats $7 each if the annual baseball classic is played in Cleveland. Tickets will be sold in sets only for the three games scheduled for the American League city and each individual may order two sets only. Thus, a set of box seat tickets will cost $30 and a set of reserved seat tickets will cost $21. A set of tickets includes one ticket for each of the three games to be played in Cleveland if the Indians participate in the series.

The club announced that orders would be filled by lot and not on a first-come, first-served basis if the amount of orders exceeded the number of available tickets. All applications must be postmarked no later than Friday, Sept. 17. No orders will be processed before the deadline and every properly executed order will have an equal chance to be filled.

In making the ticket announce ment, the Cleveland club issued the following directions on how to order tickets:

1. Address applications to World Series Office, Cleveland Stadium, Cleveland, 14. Ohio.

2. Print or typewrite full name and address on application. 3. Be sure to enclose a self-ad-

NEW YORK &-Boxing insiders, gathered here from near and far for the Rocky Marciano-Ezzard Charles heavyweight title fight to morrow night at Yankee Stadium envision a short and explosive

The general viewpoint of boxers, managers, trainers, and promoters was more or less summed up by Charley Johnston, manager of champions Archie Moore and Sandy Saddler.

"I think Charles will tear out and try for a quick knockout," said Johnston, "He'll probably shoot the works in an effort to cut Rocky's eve like he did in the first fight and try to put him away. You remember he did jar Marciano a couple of times early in the fight-

"If he doesn't get Rocky in six, he's going to get flattened himself," said Johnston.

The majority opinion, too, was that if there was going to be any flattening, Rocky would be the guy
